FREEDOM

REV DAVID RIETVELD

Many elements of the war in Ukraine have been astounding. Western businesses, like MasterCard and Visa, independent of governments, enforce their own sanctions on Russia. That Germany would realise the weakness of NATO, and double its expenditure on defence. But none is more inspiring than to see the human spirit stand and fight for freedom, and against injustice.

Ukraine is being led by a former comedian. A man who has the pedigree of Charlie Chaplain, but is channelling the passion and resolve of Churchill. He is garnering support and propagating courage, both inside and outside his homeland.

To see Ukrainian rock stars, returning Olympians and other world-class sportsmen, and a former beauty queen – let alone ordinary Ukrainians take up arms against a superior invading army is inspiring.

I cannot but help think that we take freedom for granted, and lost a sense of its true value. We frame freedom as the ability to make a mobile phone call. We are free to do and choose what we want. Freedom is first freedom from – from oppression and evil.

Second, follows an equally weighty question. What does one do with this precious gift of freedom?

Paul reflects on this in Ephesians 5. Do not accept the freedom we receive in Christ, to then enslave yourself to the things of this world.

Freedom costs. Not just more expensive fuel. It is costing Ukrainians deeply, and it cost Jesus his life. Use your freedom in ways that reflect its true value.

Dave's Retirement

When Dave Langley joined the staff team in 2016 he signed up for 3 years as Business Manager. 6 years later, Dave is retiring from his paid ministry role.

Dave has brought many gifts and skills to his role and has supported the congregation, staff team and general public in many ways throughout his time as Business Manager at DAC. It would be difficult to list all of the things Dave does in a day, let alone in 6 years but we know for certain, there's a lot on that list! I'm sure many of you have been told "ask Dave" or at least thought it on countless occasions.

We are so thankful for Dave's faithfulness in his ministry and for God's provision. Dave and Sharon will continue to worship at DAC at the 10am service.

We will be celebrating Dave's retirement at the end of March. If you would like to send a message of thanks or support please send your message via office@daptoanglican.org.au. If you would like to contribute financially for gift to thank Dave for his years of faithful service you can drop money into the office or electronic transfer with these details: Acc: Dapto Anglican, BSB: 032686 Acc#: 120002 with the label DAVEGIFT.
